Museum Passes Policy

- Passes are available to any Scituate resident with a valid library card.
- Reservations can be booked up to two months in advance and made in person or over the phone.
- A returnable pass must be returned to the library on the same day it is used unless otherwise directed. Late fee is $5 per day.
- Museum passes may be returned in the book drop if the library is closed.
- One museum pass per family per day is allowed.
- Please call and cancel if you are unable to use a pass you have reserved. This will allow another Scituate resident to use it.
- Contact individual museum for information regarding special exhibits.
- The museum passes are provided through the generosity of the Friends of the Scituate Town Library.
- A lost pass will result in assessment of a replacement fee.

The library is not responsible for errors. Please call individual museum, or consult museum's website, for up-to-date information on hours, regular admission, exhibits, etc.
